Volume XLIX, No. 7 Columbus Education Association October 1, 2018

#CEAstrong

CEA President John Coneglio delivered his opening “State of the Association” address at the first regular meeting of the Legislative Assembly before the gathered Senior and Faculty Representatives at The Boathouse on Thursday, Sept. 20.

“I think it is safe to say that last year was a tough year for all of us,” said President Coneglio. He spoke frankly about recent trials of the Association, including contentious contract negotiations, the mid-year departure of Dr. Good, a failed superintendent search and continuing attacks on public education at the state and national level, including the recent Supreme Court Janus decision.

“We understand the fact that we are in a tough environment,” continued Coneglio, “but we are union strong. We currently have more dues-paying members than we had last year despite the Janus Supreme Court decision.”

President Coneglio went on to list the work that your Association has been engaged in since June. It includes:

- Advocating for early release days for heat and equal treatment for CEA bargaining unit members during heat-related closures;
- Developing a comprehensive plan for heat-related closures with the administration;
- Increasing dialogue and collaboration with the administration and the Board of Education;
- Attending the Facilities Task Force meetings as a stakeholder with full voting rights;
- Utilizing new CEA members in both the OEA Leadership Academy and Organizing and Communications Training;
- Continuing the work of the Association through Joint Labor-Management meetings.

President Coneglio called out the District’s recently released state report card as part of a system “meant to punish poor districts, such as ours and reward affluent districts.” He agreed with Dr. Stanford that the district has made improvements, meeting or exceeding proficiency levels this past year when compared to the year before.

Coneglio concluded his address by reminding the gathered Faculty Representatives that this is a bargaining year, imploring all members to participate in the process. He also spoke about the upcoming General Election in November.

“We need to stand together in solidarity,” said President Coneglio, “and concentrate on what unites us and not what divides us. Only through collective action can we advocate for our profession. We need to mobilize and elect candidates who are friends of education.”

During his report, Vice President Phil Hayes touched on multiple topics, including substitutes, teacher allocations and class sizes, a crowdfunding update and insurance. Hayes reminded the attendees that the work of being an Association Faculty Representative was “99 percent about being a diplomat and 1 percent about being a soldier.”

The CEA Legislative Assembly passed a member-initiated new business item revoking CEA’s endorsement of state Rep. Bernadine Kent.
