Honoring Black Americans

This month, we remember the contributions of many Americans who were left out of the history books for many decades. It is our opportunity to share the accomplishments of American heroes and to emphasize that American history isn’t the purview of any one group of people.

Black History Month began in 1926 when historian Carter G. Woodson urged fraternity brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. to help promote a “Negro History Week.” Woodson, a Harvard-trained historian, believed that promoting the achievements of black people would help to combat prejudice and build a sense of pride among his people.

Since 1976, every U.S. President has officially designated the month of February as Black History Month. Other countries around the world, including Canada and the United Kingdom, also devote a month to celebrating black history.

This year’s Black History Month theme is The Black Family: Representation, Identity, and Diversity. The black family has been a topic of study in many disciplines—history, literature, the visual arts and film studies, sociology, anthropology, and social policy. Its representation, identity, and diversity have been referenced, stereotyped, and vilified from the days of slavery to our own time. The black family knows no single location, since family reunions and genetic-ancestry searches testify to the spread of family members across states, nations, and continents. Not only are individual black families diasporic, but Africa and the diaspora itself have been long portrayed as the black family at large.

While the role of the black family has been described by some as a microcosm of the entire race, its complexity as the “foundation” of African American life and history can be seen in numerous debates over how to represent its meaning and typciality from a historical perspective—as slave or free, as patriarchal or matriarchal/matrifocal, as single-headed or dual-headed household, as extended or nuclear, as fictive kin or blood lineage, as legal or common law, and as black or interracial, etc. Variation appears, as well, in discussions on the nature and impact of parenting, childhood, marriage, gender norms, sexuality, and incarceration. The family offers a rich tapestry of images for exploring the African American past and present. For classroom resources, go to https://asalh.org/black-history-themes/.

Important Information: Remote-In/ Simultaneous Instruction

During negotiations for our comprehensive 2020–2021 School Year Memorandum of Understanding, the District’s bargaining team brought to the table a proposal that a large group of CEA bargaining unit members would be required to instruct in-person and virtual students simultaneously using “remote-in” technology.

Your CEA bargaining team was unequivocal in its response.

Except in extremely limited circumstances, the proposal was a non-starter.

Edutors responsible for the supervision and education of both in-person and remote students at the same time incur significant risk to their licensure and careers. We reminded the Board’s team that during these very negotiations, over 600 teachers in neighboring Gahanna made the difficult decision to go on strike in the middle of a global pandemic over this very issue, ultimately forcing that district to drop the requirement.

Your CEA team was successful in limiting so-called “remote-in” instruction to the following situations (Blended Learning Model, Content Area Teachers, Paragraph #4):

- “Special identified student populations (AP, IB, CCP, Career Center) may fall outside of these asynchronous minute requirements if teachers, in their professional judgment, choose to provide live instruction at their sole discretion to students who are remote or if the teachers must provide live instruction to certain students who are remote if deemed an appropriate accommodation as the result of a 504 or IEP team meeting, due process or mediation case.”

This language is followed by an entire paragraph of agreed-upon protections for members in these narrow categories. To be crystal clear:

1. The ONLY CEA bargaining unit members who can be directed to provide simultaneous remote-in instruction are those with remote students for whom remote-in instruction has been deemed an appropriate accommodation as the result of a 504 or IEP team meeting, due process or mediation case.

2. The ONLY CEA bargaining unit members who may choose, at their sole discretion, to provide remote-in instruction are those with AP, IB, CCP, or Career Center students.

We understand the desire of some members to provide extra “live” instruction to their remote students. However, these negotiated limitations are for the protection of your licensure and career.

We are also receiving reports that some administrators are directing, encouraging, suggesting, pressuring, or implying that other CEA bargaining unit members must provide remote-in instruction.

This is unacceptable.

A directive to provide remote-in instruction is a change in your working conditions that must be bargained pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 4117. Outside of the narrow categories detailed above, no such agreement has been reached between CEA and CCS. A directive to other bargaining unit members to provide remote-in instruction will result not only in a grievance being filed for violation of the MOU, but potentially an Unfair Labor Practice charge being filed with the State Employment Relations Board for a unilateral change in working conditions.

If you have any questions do not hesitate to contact CEA.

and ice removal in parking lots. The following information outlines the snow plowing and salting procedures for Columbus City Schools.

- Sidewalks are to be plowed and/or salted by the custodial staff of the building. Custodians will remove snow and ice and apply ice melt (salt) to all entrances, walkways, steps, and sidewalks. In addition, they will salt a single path through the staff parking lot for safe passage.
- Playgrounds will not and should not be plowed. Plowing equipment can easily damage the playground surfaces.
- Snow Plowing occurs when snow accumulation in parking areas is determined to affect the continuity of operations and provided there is school the next day and enough time is available to complete the plowing before the school day begins.
- Contractors are responsible to plow snow from parking lots and the entrance and exit drives of buildings.
- Contractors are to plow snow in such a way that it does not cover or block fire hydrants, sidewalks, entryways to the parking lot, doorways to the school or service buildings, trash dumpsters, or bus drop off areas.
- Salt may be spread on packed snow and ice when safety conditions require such activity and may not involve all building sites due to possible varying conditions in different parts of the city.
- If contract plowing is not used and snow or icy conditions occur; Buildings and Grounds will plow or salt Administrative Sites, Special Needs areas such as handicap sites, and hills at the discretion of the Director of Buildings and Grounds.

Reorganization: It’s Elementary

This is the time of the year when principals begin to organize their staff. It’s mostly the elementary principals who seem to be confused by this process—every year. The deadline for notification of reorganization is Friday, Feb. 5. Principals must follow the rules when staff reducing and reorganizing staffs:

- Reductions are made by category: K and 1–5.
- Reducing a kindergarten teacher? You must reduce from among the current kindergarten teachers, the volunteer or the least senior teacher.
- Reducing in grades 1–5: Only the volunteers or the least senior teachers are staff reduced. Staff-reduced teachers cannot be reorganized into vacancies.
- Kindergarten teachers may not be reorganized into grades 1–5 or 1–6 positions, and vice versa, unless a vacancy is available and with the agreement of CEA and Human Resources. This includes looping in grade-level categories.
- Principals should provide bargaining unit members written notice of their reorganization. Such written notice should indicate whether or not the grade level teachers being reorganized is a “self-contained” or “departmentalized” classroom, along with the subject(s) that teacher will be teaching.

If you have questions regarding the reorganization and staff-reduction process, read Section 211.03 of the CEA Master Agreement; or call CEA at (614) 253-4731.

Article 211: Staff Reductions

The Article 211 process includes an “Article 211 Roster Lab” for administrators. It is at these Roster Labs, held over the past week, that building principals learn of their staffing allocations. As a result, administrators may be required to staff-reduce additional least-senior teacher(s) or volunteers to meet their allocation total. The roster that administrators receive will list all “automatically” staff reduced teachers. The list of “automatically” staff reduced teachers are as follows:

- Elimination of program or school closure;
- Assignments by Human Resources after completing a two-year placement;
- Job-Fair positions after completing a two-year placement;
- Teachers approved by Human Resources for a Voluntary Staff Reduction.

The deadline to notify a teacher of an administrative staff reduction due to declining enrollment is Friday, Feb. 5. If an administrator must staff reduce a teacher due to declining enrollment, the principal must first ask for volunteers in the area of certification needed for the staff reduction. If no one volunteers, the least senior teacher in the area of certification is staff reduced. Seniority is based upon hire date and board date by the District, not how long a bargaining unit member has worked in a building/unit. If you have any questions, contact the CEA office at (614) 253-4731.

Vote for Denise K. Sizemore for Education First Credit Union Board of Directors

Denise Sizemore has been a member of the Education First Credit Union for 30 years. She is a proud CCS graduate from CAHS. Her father, a retired Columbus City Schools teacher, brought her to the credit union to open up her very first account before she left for college. After college, Denise returned and began her teaching career as a Columbus City Schools teacher.

In her 23 years as an educator, Denise has maintained her membership with the credit union. She has a vested interest in the future of the credit union and the path that will ensure every member is supported in their financial endeavors. Denise currently serves on The Board of Governors for the Columbus Education Association. She stated, “Being a governor has afforded me the opportunity to work with educators across the district. I will bring to the Education First Board of Directors compassion and concern for every member along with innovative ideas to engage our members, and obtain new membership.

Members can find ballots in their end of the year statement letters mailed out at the beginning of January. Also, all 3 branch locations will have paper ballots and a box. The ballot can also be downloaded from the Education First Credit Union website. Thank you for your support! All Ballots must be received by Sunday, Feb. 28, 2021.

Summer Fee Waivers Coming

The Summer 2021 Fee Waiver online application process is just around the corner. Bargaining unit members can access the online application from home or work using their CCS email username and password. The online form will automatically send applicants a confirmation email once their application is submitted. Instructions on how to complete the online application can be found at http://bit.ly/3jW5Sjd. The application period will open on Monday, Feb. 1, and close at 11:59 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 18.

If you have Priority 1 or Priority 2 status, be sure to upload the proper documentation with your online application. Documentation is required with each fee waiver process. Your Priority status will change without the proper documentation. Contact Sara Lowery at (614) 365-5039 or email her at slowery@columbus.k12.oh.us if you have any questions.

Textbook Selection Committee Nominations

Our Master Agreement provides CEA members input into vital classroom decisions. Section 504.01 details the agreed-upon framework for one of these, textbook selection. When it is time to review textbooks in a particular subject area, teachers from those subjects participate.

The District will be selecting the following resources for Pre-K and Special Needs Pre-K:
- Core curriculum for Pre-K and Special Needs Pre-K
- Supplemental resources for Special Needs Pre-K

Note: Each grouping above represents a separate textbook committee. Bargaining unit members may only serve on one committee due to the RFQ process.

Here’s how the process works:
- CCE posts a notice asking for textbook-adoption committee participants.
- Only teachers from each pertinent subject area and grade level at schools involved elect the nominees.
- Each of the building nominee elections is conducted by its principal and Association Building Council (ABC).
- Nominations should be emailed to CEA President John Conéglio (conéglioj@ceaohio.org) and copied to Kelly Rivers (krivers@columbus.k12.oh.us) no later than Friday, Feb. 19.
- Nominations should be on school letterhead signed by both the building principal and Senior Faculty Representative.
- Nominees go to a joint Association and Board committee for a final vote.

We will learn from the texts, from one another, and from guest speakers whose work inspires our communities.

Space is limited to 10 educators committed to abolitionist teaching, to sharing what they learn with others, and to using the books we provide in their classrooms right away. Each educator selected will receive Dr. Love’s book and a carefully curated set of picture, poetry, middle grade, and young adult books. Safe, socially distant book pick up will be at Fort Hayes HS. Options for any CEA Member Recalled to Work

The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) expired on Dec. 31, 2020. However, just before winter break, CEA announced that our Union was successful in reaching a ground-breaking agreement with the District to extend all provisions of the FFCRA through Mar. 23, 2021, for CEA Bargaining Unit members. It is important to note that the names of these benefits, or the forms used to apply, may change as they are no longer tied to federal law. However, the benefits themselves will remain intact for the duration of the extension. It is also important to note that there was no “reset” of available leave time. Therefore, if you exhausted FFCRA leave in 2020, you will not be eligible for the extended benefits.

If you are caring for minors whose school or daycare is closed/unavailable, or a household member has tested positive for COVID-19, are exhibiting symptoms, waiting for test results, or are under a quarantine order you likely qualify for FFCRA leave. FFCRA includes two major components; Emergency Paid Sick Leave (EPSL) and Emergency Extended FMLA (EFML). These leaves, combined, can cover up to 12 weeks of paid leave. They are in addition to district leaves and do not affect sick leave balance.

The member may elect to use sick leave simultaneously to receive full pay instead of the 2/3 pay provided for by FFCRA. These leaves can be used intermittently just like FMLA.

If you are denied, or have questions specific to your situation, contact the CEA office.

Americans with Disabilities Act

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a Federal Law that requires employers to make reasonable accommodations for individuals with a diagnosed disability. If you have been diagnosed with a physical condition which puts you in a COVID-19 high-risk category (see https://bit.ly/3eRymvY), or a mental health condition that is worsened by the COVID-19 pandemic, you may be eligible for accommodations under the ADA. These accommodifications can include, but are not limited to, additional PPE, increased distancing, transfer to a vacant position with less contact, remote work, or even medical leave.

If you are denied, or have questions specific to your situation, contact the CEA office.

Unpaid Medical Leave

All Board of Education employees are eligible for Unpaid Medical Leave of up to two years according to the Ohio Revised Code 3319.13. If you do not fall in to one of the categories above and do not wish to return to work in the current environment, this is an option available to you. Contact the CEA Office for more information.

The program will provide a rigorous bilingual language immersion continuum of Spanish and French for rising students from the Columbus Global Academy, as well as the District’s two immersion schools—École Kenwood French Immersion and Columbus Spanish Immersion Academy. All of the vacant positions for this brand-new school will be included in the Article 211 Selective Interview Process.

- Offers to selected WLMS applicants will be made at the same time as other selected applicants at other schools.
- CEA bargaining unit members under a three-year commitment in their current position who meet the qualifications for any WLMS vacancy may apply at that school in Rounds 1 and 2. This waiver applies only to WLMS per the MOU signed by your Union and the administration.

If you have any questions, call CEA at (614) 253-4731.
